I've spent most of my life golfing - the rest I've just wasted. The average golfer doesn't play golf. He attacks it.

Golf is like life. If you can't take golf, you can't take life.

BORN TO GOLF.

FORCED TO WORK.

Golf is like life in a lot of ways, all the biggest wounds are self-inflicted.

A golf course is nothing but a pool room moved outdoors.

There's no game like golf: you go out with three friends, play eighteen holes, and return with three enemies.

My body is here, but my mind has already teed off.

Don't play too much golf. Two rounds a day are plenty.

Playing the game I have learned the meaning of humility. It has given me an understanding of the futility of human effort.

I regard golf as an expensive game of marbles.

It took me seventeen years to get three thousand hits in cricket. I did it in one afternoon on the golf course.

If you think it's hard meeting new people, try picking up the woman golfer.

If you wish to hide your character, do not play golf.
